LEWIS FACES INJUNCTION IN COAL ROW

Test of Taft-Hartley Law Is Seen In Tie-Up Lewis Denies

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 31—John L. Lewis today faced a possible second court order in as many days—this one to send his 400,000 striking miners back to work at once.

The United Mine Workers chief bowed to one summons yesterday and appeared for the first time before a Presidential board of inquiry studying the facts and causes of the soft coal pension dispute.

After Lewis testified "under compulsion", the three-man board hurried to complete its report by early morning and thus speed further action by President Truman to halt the walkout which began March 15.

As soon as Truman receives the report he can order Attorney General Clark to seek a court injunction to halt the strike. This step is provided under the Taft-Hartley act.

Will Test Law
As the number one foe of the Taft-Hartley act, Lewis was well on the way toward providing its first and most spectacular test case.

He has steadfastly refused to meet a basic requirement of the act—to take an oath that he is not a Communist. A bitter anti-Communist, Lewis has blasted that provision as "an insult."

When Lewis responded to the subpoena yesterday, he vigorously denied that he had inspired the miners to walk out by his letter to them March 12. The letter said the operators had "dishonored" their contract by not agreeing to Lewis' pension proposal. It suggested that the local unions "hold meetings" to discuss this question.

The "meetings" resulted in a partial shutdown of the soft coal industry. It spread rapidly until its effects were nationwide. Steel production and railroad passenger and freight services were curtailed.

If the federal court grants an injunction against Lewis and the miners, his March 12 letter to the

TRUMAN STUDIES INQUIRY REPORT

WASHINGTON, March 31—President Truman got his fact-finding board's report on the coal strike today and announced he will delay any further government step in the dispute until he studies the report.

White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that Truman will take the board's report and supporting documents with him on a trip to Williamsburg, Va.

He is leaving for Williamsburg tomorrow afternoon and on Friday will get an honorary degree from William and Mary college there.

Ross said the board's report will not be made public until "some time after the President's return from Williamsburg" on Saturday.

The inquiry board brought its report to Truman last after noon. The next possible step under the Taft-Hartley law's emergency strike procedure is a White House request to the Justice department to seek a court order to end the strike.

Juniors To Present Class Play 3 Nights This Week

A matinee performance of the Junior class play, "Home Sweet Homicide" was shown this afternoon to Junior High school students in the High school auditorium.

The mystery-comedy is scheduled for public presentation at 8:15 p. m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The complete cast includes: Betty Whaley as the victim, Marian Carlisle as the detective, Shirley Smith (Dinah), Martha Vaughn (April) and Jerry Rice (Archie) as her three teenage children.

Kenny Zeigler is cast as the detective, Bill Smith; Robert Askey as Police Sergeant O'Hare; Gene Dean and Joan Whinery as Mr. and Mrs. Cherrington; Don Silver, Flashlight, Jerry Miller, Sluke; Doris Eytan as Polly Walker; Helen Leider as Joella, the man snatcher; Kenneth Schromm as Pete; Gene Stevens, Marge King, Martha Jean Whinery and Florence Malar as the Gang; Pat Fainl as Riley, the gangster; Dave Jones as Wally Sanford, husband of the murdered woman; Robert Campbell as Rupert VanDusen.

Joan Shepard and Ted Sabona are stage and action directors.

Under the direction of Irene Weeks, the fast-moving plot involves a mystery-story writing widow and her three children in amusing but startling circumstances, from murder to love.

Home builders meanwhile were told by the Commerce department that stocks of some of the materials they need probably will be larger this spring than last year.

Among these are hardwood flooring, nails, soil pipe and fittings, gypsum board and laths.

But the department reported that production of steel items such as concrete reinforcing bars, warm air furnaces and fabricated structural steel dropped in January from the December levels.

Buyers Increasing
And the Securities and Exchange commission disclosed that home buyers ran up a record increase of $3,600,000,000 in mortgage deals in 1947. This compared with a gain of $3,300,000,000 in 1946 over the previous year.

Meanwhile an organization of building and loan groups — the United States Savings and Loan league — faced a court test under the 1946 Lobbying act.

A federal grand jury indicted the league yesterday on charges that it did not give congress a full report on its lobbying activities.

The league is listed as a non-profit trade organization with a membership of about 3,600 savings and loan and building and loan associations. The Justice department said total assets of the members are about $9,000,000,000.

Three officials of the league are registered with congress as lobbyists, but the Justice department said the group had not filed a required statement of receipts and expenditures "for the purpose of influencing legislation."

The organization has been active in legislation dealing with housing, consolidation of federal housing or home finance agencies, real estate mortgage-lending business and postal savings systems.

Auto Club Office Open Tonight To Aid Drivers

There will be no extension of the April 1 deadline for the purchase of 1948 Ohio automobile license tags but the local A. A. A. office will be open until 7 tonight to handle the last-minute rush.

Deputy Registrar Nina Morris said today.

Approximately 5,000 licenses have been sold in Salem, leaving about 100 motorists without new plates.

NEW RENT LAW TERMED WEAK BY PRESIDENT

Signs Bill To Become Active At Midnight: Says Not "Best"

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 31 — A new rent control law, described by President Truman as weak but better than none, goes into effect at midnight tonight.

Some 50,000,000 Americans are covered by the measure extending modified controls to March 31, 1949. The President in signing the bill yesterday said in a statement:

"We can not hope to be wholly successful in holding the line on rents by the powers granted in this act."

But he promised that the administration "will do everything it can under this act to hold rents to reasonable levels."

The new law does not provide for any general rent increases, but does permit boosts up to 15 per cent where tenants and landlords agree on a lease running through 1949.

Creates Special Court

The major change from the old law is the creation of a special federal court which has final say on raising or removing ceilings whenever Federal Housing Expediter Lighe Woods disputes a local board's findings. The law says the court must uphold any board which gives "adequate and substantial evidence" to support rent changes.

Truman said rents have increased at least six per cent "since the rent control law was weakened last June."

He appealed for early congressional action on a federal housing program to help ease the shortage.

Raymond M. Foley, Federal Housing administrator, told a house committee Monday that 1,000,000 new homes and apartments will have to be built in the next 10 years to relieve the housing shortage.

Home builders meanwhile were told by the Commerce department that stocks of some of the materials they need probably will be larger this spring than last year.

Among these are hardwood flooring, nails, soil pipe and fittings, gypsum board and laths.

But the department reported that production of steel items such as concrete reinforcing bars, warm air furnaces and fabricated structural steel dropped in January from the December levels.

House Pressures Toward O.K. Today; Amendments Rise

WASHINGTON, March 31—Time and amount were the big issues as house leaders put on the pressure today for passage of the $6,206,000,000 foreign aid bill.

Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana ordered the session to start early and run late.

"We said before we'd be through by April 1," he said, "and I think we will."

And Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), managing the measure on the floor, told a reporter "we'll wind it up today."

The main but unwritten purpose of the bill is to block the march of Communism across Europe and China.

There is disagreement over how long congress should pledge this country to help Europe recover and what the cost should be this year. The bill now provides for a one-year program at a cost of $6,206,000,000.

"Time and amount are the big things left," Vorys said. "And I think they'll be left substantially as is."

He predicted the house would beat down.

Proposal by Rep. Hand (R-NJ) to rip out all military aid—$775,000,000 for Greece and Turkey and $150,000,000 for China.

Another by Rep. Vursell (R-ILL) to slash the European Recovery total to $4,000,000,000.

That would leave just the program's duration and cost to be thrashed out.

The way the foreign affairs committee drafted the bill, congress would have to okay a new program and a new appropriation every year. But it also says something about the money remaining available until mid-1952. Some congressmen regard that date as a moral commitment to a four-year program. They went to knock it out.

The house spent eight hours yesterday putting things in and taking others out.

It put in: An invitation to Spain to get in on the European Recovery program. Provisions empowering the foreign aid administrator to ban shipments of war supplies to Russia and her satellites, and to do his best to see to it that Western Europe doesn't make American materials into war goods for Eastern Europe.

A requirement that half the cargoes shipped for European Recovery be carried in American vessels.

It took out: Authority for the chartering of 200 American ships to countries receiving help.

As for Spain, the foreign affairs committee agreed to have the bill say that country should be allowed to come into ERP on terms set by the 16 other European nations, and the house quickly went along.

State Launching "Jobs With Future"

COLUMBUS, March 31 — Ohio has launched a program stressing "jobs with a future" for college-trained World War II veterans.

The idea, explained Frank J. Colquhoun, state unemployment compensation director, is to help the ex-GI's cash in on their college work.

Starting April 5, the unemployment bureau will begin taking applications from veterans—and non-veterans—under a statewide job-development program. The aim is to find jobs under "increasingly competitive conditions."

Mean Time:

It Won't Start at Greenwich Any More,
But World Will Still Set Clocks By It

Time runs out for old Royal Observatory at Greenwich, where ancient observatory domes still bear scars of war.

Already moved from Greenwich, this 100-year-old pendulum clock still sets the world's time.

GREENWICH, England — (NEA) — Time used to begin here; soon it won't.

But the world will still set its clocks by Greenwich Mean Time as it has for centuries past.

When King Charles II, with an eye toward British maritime supremacy in the 17th century, decided to establish an observatory, he picked the quiet countryside of Greenwich, a sleepy Thames-side village far out in the country from London.

He borrowed some bricks from Tilbury Fort, some lead from the Tower of London, got a little money from the sale of some spoiled gunpowder, and had his Greenwich Observatory built for 500 pounds sterling.

His astronomers, who had to buy their own instruments, ran an imaginary zero meridian of longitude across their hill-top perch, and since that time the world has taken its time from Greenwich. Ships make all their position calculations from its zero line.

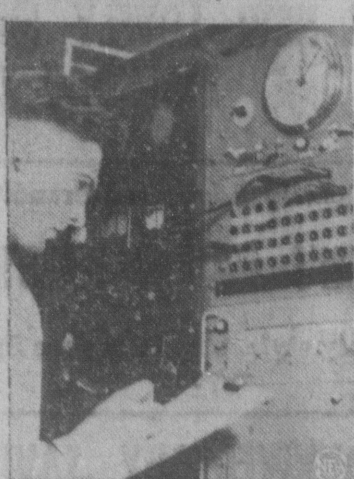

But King Charles wasn't farsighted enough. Sprawling London is catching up with Greenwich, and the smoke of its factories plus naturally bad weather is obscuring its observations and threatening its accuracy.

So during the next five years the observatory will be moved, little by little, to the 14th century Hurstmonceux Castle, 55 miles away. The actual clocks already have been moved to Abinger, 18 miles west of the meridian line.

Actual time at Abinger is one minute, 32.733 seconds slower than Greenwich Mean Time. But even the clocks in Abinger are wrong—thirty-thousandths of a second—to allow for the lag of electrical impulses over the land lines which take the time signal to Rugby. There it is transmitted by radio to all points of the world.

Time is checked from observations of the 1535 stars which the International Astronomical Union agrees should be used to make corrections.

The observatory's modern clocks can be checked for accuracy to the fourth decimal point of a second. But a 100-year-old pendulum clock, wired with electricity, ticks off the seconds from Abinger over a relay system.

Modern apparatus monitors the ancient clock's ticking. Operator can check time's accuracy to fourth decimal point.

GI'S IN MIDDLE ON INTEREST ROW

Lending Outfits Seeking Higher Rate On Loans For Vet Houses

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, March 31—Ohio veterans are in the middle of a campaign by lending institutions for higher GI loan interest rates, says VA Executive George Sturgeon.

Sturgeon, chief of the Veterans Administration's three-state loan guaranty office here, yesterday said GI loans in Ohio, Kentucky and Michigan fell off 25 percent in the last two months.

"The decline in GI loans is definitely an attempt on the part of lending institutions to force up interest rates," he asserted.

Congress provided that all veterans loans be at four percent interest. Disagreement Cited

Sturgeon said many banks and insurance companies "feel the general stiffening of interest rates should include GI loans."

"They say," he continued, "that four percent is too low for a veterans loan and they are holding out for higher interest."

Leroy Parsons, secretary of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards, and a spokesman for the Ohio Bankers association differed.

Parsons said he knew of no organized movement to reject GI loans because of the interest rates. He credited buyer resistance to high real estate prices for any GI loan application slump.

The Bank association spokesman agreed, saying:

"Prices in most cases are too high and people feel, for example, if they wait maybe they can buy the same house for less."

Sturgeon said many veterans still need homes and if loan rejections increase, it's going to be congress baby again. He said two things can be done: (1) Increase the interest rate or (2) provide a secondary market for loans by having government agencies handle them.

He attributed the "campaign" for higher interest rates to the "inevitable economic statute—supply and demand."

"When the war ended," he said, "there was an accumulated credit reserve derived from deposits and other cash reserves. People began to spend a good deal of their savings on things they were unable to buy during the war."

"The banks joined in the construction boom by investing in mortgage loans," he continued. "The money shrank as the demand for mortgage loans increased. That led to the demand for higher interest rates. As a result many loans are being turned down."

COTTON SPREADS ITS CHARM

Dresses and suits with long, full skirts give summer cottons every chance to spread their charms.

Some of that charm is in print—in chambray stripes, in gingham checks and plaids which make high-styled dresses. Precious touches like gold belts and velvet sashes hoist these prints from the category of the simple little cotton dress to the ranks of high-styled nifties. There is proof in the velvet-ashed dress of gold-and-black plaid gingham, shown right. This Jerry Parnis design has a swirl of a skirt topped by a snug bodice and a cape collar. Used to accent a tiny waistline is a wide cross-over black velvet belt which ties in a bow and ends in long little-girl streamers.

Competing with prints for the summer spotlight are monotone cottons with new surface interest. These make suits designed to commute from town to country. The wisteria-colored cotton suit, left, of Del Mar's design with a full skirt and a cape-sleeved jacket has a tweedy weave like wool, and defies the summer sun to wilt or wrinkle it.

Sheriff Ralph Paul, who surveyed the damage, said he planned to see if some steps could be taken to declare Hashmall a public menace and force him to leave town.

Police Halted Action

Hashmall and a small group of followers attempted to pass out Communist literature at the Timken Roller Bearing Co., last week. Timken workers tore up the pamphlets. Police prevented violence.

A few days later, another attempt was made to pass out literature at the Timken plant. This time the pamphlets not only attacked the Marshall plan but the way the Timken workers acted previously. One of the literature posters was "slugged," Hashmall claimed.

He asked Mayor James A. Rhodes for "special police protection" for his group. The mayor refused to see him. Then Hashmall went to Police Chief Charles Berry. Berry listened but refused "special protection." He ordered Hashmall out of his office when the Communist leader "launched into a tirade against the public."

On Monday Hashmall wrote another letter to Mayor Rhodes. He charged Columbus newspapers with "trying to promote a lynching spirit" and alleged the police had ignored his pleas for protection.

Red Leader Dies

MCKINLEY, March 31—The "unlucky" death of Maj. Gen. Mikhail Romanovich Galaktionov, Soviet military observer and journalist, was announced today in Tross, the Russian trade union newspaper. Galaktionov visited the United States two years ago.

"DEER ME!"

Doe Turns Things Topsy Turvy After Invading E. Liverpool Home

EAST LIVERPOOL, March 31—"Deer me," commented Mrs. Harold Hadley sadly as she swept up broken glass, took down tattered curtains and righted upset living room furniture today.

The damage was left by a wild deer that galloped across the lawn at the Hadley home about six blocks from the business district, bounded through the front living room and storm windows, on down the hallway and out the rear of the dining room—also through the curtains and glass of two more windows.

"I thought a car had crashed into the house," Mr. Hadley said. The aroused family got to the top of the stairway in time to see a tawny black and white tail speed by.

They thought it was a wildcat, but a taxi driver, whose car almost struck the doe as it bounded across the street, identified it as a 100-pound deer.

The animal disappeared through yards up the hillside above the Hadley home, and may have reached the river shore.

Milk Increase O. K.

CLEVELAND, March 31—Farmers producing milk for the Cleveland market have been granted an extra 15 cents per hundredweight for April by the Department of Agriculture. This raises to $1.15 the amount they will receive above the basic price formula.

Will Hear Liquor Case

COLUMBUS, March 31—A new Franklin county grand jury that will be asked to investigate reports of alleged state liquor permit shake-downs will be called for April 12, Prosecutor Ralph J. Bartlett said yesterday. Liquor Director Dale Dunham made public a claim by a Springfield, O., night club operator of paying $300 to a liquor department official last week.

membership might play an important role in the legal argument. The court might ask him to withdraw or revise that letter because of its effect.

Federal Judge Sherman Minton, who is chairman of the fact-finding board kept up a constant barrage of questions about the relationship between the March 12 letter to the miners and a February 2 letter Lewis sent to the operators. The notice to the operators cited a dispute over pensions and recalled that the contract signed last July 8 and running until next June 30 provides for "independent action" in a controversy.

Minton asked Lewis if the March 12 letter suggesting the "meetings" was the "independent action" referred to.

Lewis replied: "If the purpose of your questioning is on the premise that my letter inspired any action by the United Mine Workers, then you are entirely in error."

Lewis said that letter, announced at a news conference, was "merely an overdue report to the beneficiaries" of the welfare and retirement fund.

With Lewis on the three-man board of trustees for the retirement fund were Ezra Van Horn, representing the operators, and Thomas E. Murray, New York financier, a neutral. Murray quit in January after both Lewis and Van Horn rejected his compromise to earmark for pensions $20,000,000 of the estimated $48,000,000 to be collected in the first year. The fund is financed by a 10-cent-a-ton coal royalty paid by the operators.

Will Raze Mansion

MEDINA, March 31—A 70-year-old mansion, built to fit two circus giants and a center of attraction here for many years, is to be razed. It formerly was occupied by the late Capt. and Mrs. M. V. Bates, both over seven feet tall. Ceilings are 14 feet high and doors eight and a half feet high.

OHIO EDISON CO. REVENUE HIGHER

Total consolidated revenues of Ohio Edison Co. and its subsidiary, Pennsylvania Power Co., for 1947 were $42,837,918 according to the annual report to stockholders mailed today. This was a 14 per cent gain over 1946.

While gross revenues set a new high figure, the cost of doing business increased at an even faster rate. Operating expenses were up $4,123,937, or 25 per cent, and amounted to $30,559,573 and $10,435,636 for the respective years.

Taxes continued as the largest item in the cost of doing business, totaling $8,451,546, or 19 cents of every dollar of gross revenue.

Fifty-six per cent of all electricity sold was for industrial purposes, and was greater than in 1944—the highest war year. Large gains in the use of electricity were noted for paint drying, de-greasing, and drying of pottery; in electric arc and metal-melting furnaces, and in the use of induction and electronic-type heating equipment.

A tabulation shows that 83 new industries, with estimated employment of 3,050, were established in communities served last year, making 239 in the last four years.

The report stated that residential and farm customers increased their use of electricity 13 per cent over 1946.

Contrasting with the upward price trend for practically all commodities and services, the average unit price of 2.67 cents per kilowatt hour paid by Edison system residential customers last year was 13 1/2 per cent cheaper than for the nation as a whole, and 25 per cent less than Edison customers paid 10 years ago.

More Farms Electrified
Over 1,200 farms were connected for electric service last year, making 28,000 farms now electrified. The Edison system now supplies electricity to 97 per cent of the farms in the area. Farm equipment dealers in the territory reported sales during 1947 of 2,280 milking systems, 525 brooders, 560 milking machines, 210 milk coolers, 375 deep freezers, 520 dairy water heaters and 45 hay driers.

During the year company lighting specialists made 2,480 layouts for customers interested in remodeling or relighting their premises.

In order to obtain more coverage and thus provide quicker service to more of its customers in cases of emergency, Ohio Edison Co. has nearly doubled the use of two-way radio equipment in service cars and trucks.

the property of the companies for the purpose of meeting increased demands for electricity and steam heat totaled $13,584,741 in 1947. The companies added 53,000 kilowatts in generating equipment and had 187,000 kilowatts under construction during the year. The New Castle power plant of Pennsylvania Power Co. was increased by 48,000 kilowatts and the Rockaway plant of Ohio Edison Co. at Springfield by 5,000 kilowatts. Under construction was a 44,000-kilowatt addition to the Gorge power plant in Akron, a 23,000-kilowatt addition to the Mad river plant in Springfield and a 120,000-kilowatt addition to the Toronto plant on the Ohio river. Steam heating plants of Ohio Edison Co. were also enlarged during the year.

Fourteen Teams Parade Wares In Salem Invitational Games

Todd, United Tool, Amvets And Hub, All Salem Clubs, Win In Second Night's Play

BY DON E. BEATTIE

Fourteen more teams paraded their respective basketball wares before the Salem Invitational basketball tournament Tuesday evening at the Memorial building.

The seven games Tuesday saw four Salem teams, Todd's, United Tool, Amvets and Hub, win their respective games. Other winners included the East Liverpool VFW, Kent and Farrell.

Berlin Center, Goshen, Lisbon, Beloit, Youngstown, Sebring and Alliance teams fell by the wayside in the onslaught of the hoop at the building.

Last night's contests marked the second night's play of the first round. Thirty of the 35 entries have now played and tonight's games will involve mostly second round battles. The schedule for tonight is carried elsewhere on this page.

Todd's Win After Rally

Berlin Center showed Todd's the way for most of the initial game last night, but the locals came through in the final half to mark up a 54-48 victory.

Mike Linder's 17 points, coupled with 12 each by Nedelka and Flick gave Todd's the final edge.

The winners trailed 13-8 at the quarter and 27-22 at halftime, but rallied to lead 39-36 as the fourth began.

East Liverpool Romps

The score actually isn't indicative of the superiority of the East Liverpool VFW over Goshen Tuesday. The Pottery City crew won 59-36, but only after scurrying into a 21-2 lead in the first quarter and moving on to a 41-13 margin by halftime.

The second half was a period of casual enjoyment for Liverpool and Goshen managed to whittle the lead somewhat.

Big guns in the Pottery scoring column were Chick Mullen with 22, Skidmore with 11 and Bucher with 10.

Kent Manages Lisbon

Kent had some difficulty surmounting Lisbon, 50-28, but most of the trouble died after the first quarter.

With both teams using plenty of players, Lisbon looked like a possible contender for victory for a bit, but the myth melted away as Kent roared to a safe 14-4 lead by quarter's end. It was 28-15 at halftime.

Milford paced Kent with 15 points while Penner's eight loomed large on the Lisbon scorebook.

United Tool Impressive

Salem's Class A runners-up, the United Tool, looked powerful in swamping the Beloit All-Stars 40-23.

The Toolers, paced last night by Treleven and Fridon with 12 and 11 respectively, poured themselves into a neat 10-3 lead by the close of the first, led 19-11 at the half and went on to increase the margin.

H. Youmans led Beloit with nine points.

Farrell A Steamroller

One of the evening's most impressive shows was staged by Farrell, an easy 62-37 winner over a not-too-bad Youngstown outfit.

Peeking away at the nets like a starving outfit, the Farrell lads had little trouble from the start with Youngstown. The count was 18-9 at the quarter, 34-18 at the half and 49-28 as the third closed.

Duff, whose shooting was far from that, edged 17 and his mate, Jankevics, garnered 13 points. Simon was Youngstown's point-hope with 10.

strong contender for local Class A honors all year, were in for a victory last night. They turned the trick 59-45 over a Sebring team which didn't find itself properly until late in the second quarter.

Finalist Arrive In Town For State's Championships

BY FRITZ HOWELL

OHIO AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, March 31—Practically all the talent will be in town today for a look at the state fairgrounds arena where the Ohio High school cage championships will be decided, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

All four Class B finalists—survivors of some 942 starters—will work out on the tournament hardwoods today in preparation for Thursday's semi-final clashes.

Lima St. Rose (27-2) leads off at noon, with Eaton (21-2), Glen-ford (35-1), and North Canton (23-5) following at hour-and-half intervals.

Canton South has been on hand since Monday, and had another 3 p. m. workout scheduled at Aquinas High school gym, the same spot where Hamilton Catholic will practice tonight at 8.

Findlay's undefeated Trojans will arrive tonight to get set for 9:30 a. m. Thursday practice session, following an 8 a. m. workout by Hamilton Catholic. Canton South has an 11 a. m. Thursday practice booked at the Coliseum, and Coshocton makes its first appearance there at 4 p. m.

In between those sessions the opening game in Class B, Eaton vs Glenford, will be played at 2:30 p. m. The other Class B semifinal, between Lima St. Rose and North Canton, is scheduled at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Friday's Class A slate is: 2:30 p. m.—Coshocton (19-5) vs Hamilton Catholic (26-1); 8 p. m.—Findlay (25-0) vs Canton South (23-1).

Coach Charles (Red) Ash of Canton South, faced with the prospect of meeting the unbeaten Findlays in the opening round, feared today his boys may be growing stale. The Wildcats had a tough time nosing out a Columbus All-Star team yesterday, and Ash said the performance was "the poorest of the season."

He immediately put a 10 p. m. curfew on his charges, and said he hoped they'd be in trim for the Friday fracas.

Although Hamilton Catholic and Findlay have been tagged as favorites in the opening games, neither Ash nor Coach Ralph Vanaman of Coshocton is ready to concede anything.

Ash said his team had played a tough schedule, and was ready to anything, while Vanaman was quoted in Coshocton as saying:

"There might be some surprises in the state finals. We're the under-dogs, all right, but the boys have been looking sharp in practice."

Salem's city champions, Mullins, added another laurel to their collection Tuesday night by stomping the Warren Mullins club 46-40 in the Leavittsburg High gym.

Warren Mullins, the industrial champs of that city, could never get in the game, after Salem jumped to a 10-point lead in the second canto.

Norm Smith caged 10 to pace the Salemites with Tony Martindell and Bill Schaeffer each notched eight. Schaeffer was injured during the game. Gene Rossi collected 13 for Warren and Robinson got 16.

Named Conneaut Coach

CONNEAUT, March 31—John Yesso, former Conneaut Junior High school coach and ex-football player at Mount Union college, has been named head grid pilot at Conneaut High, succeeding Elmer C. Pennington, school officials reported today. Pennington resigned recently to return to farming.

PHILADELPHIA—The Philadelphia Athletics floundered with a first place berth all last season and a successful campaign in years, but the A's might have finished even higher if they had been able to overcome just one run occasionally.

The Athletics lost 59 games by a single run last season. They won 15 by that slim margin.

DEPARTMENT OF CONJECTURE

With the announcement today that Bud Houghton, Massillon High football and basketball coach, has resigned there to accept a position as head man at Akron U., comes some interesting sidelights for district fans.

This corner has it on good authority that Massillon now will seriously consider Charles Mather, ex-Lebanon and current Hamilton High coach, for the vacated position.

Although Mather may be unable to accept an offer from Massillon for purely financial reasons, it's a safe bet to contemplate plenty of debate on his part before turning such an offer down.

Mather has built himself a great reputation in southern Ohio since his almost unbelievable record as head man at Lebanon and consequently it is highly possible that Massillon would not be able to better the financial situation the Ohio Northern graduate now has at Hamilton.

But you can rest assured that Mather will be among the top men on the Tiger menior-to-be list. Others sure of some consideration are Mel Knowlton of Alliance and Augie Morningstar, now of Mansfield.

There is a large question brewing about those two, however, as the opinion among many Massillonites is that the town has had enough of the products of the Brown era and system.

Not that those men—Houghton was one—were incapable or below par, but simply that fans feel men from the old set-up are tied down in too many traditions and factions.

The thinking in Massillon right now is that perhaps a newcomer to Massillon—a non-Massillon product—would be able to give things a new vibrance and life.

Mather, incidentally, is qualified to fill that stipulation. And the fact that he was voted No. 1 coach of southern Ohio last fall won't hurt him a bit.

He'll be getting a bid from Massillon but we can't say whether or not he will accept. His salary, it is definitely known, is at least as much, and probably more, than Houghton received at Massillon.

And Mather just signed a new two-year contract at Hamilton.

But it's a tempting offer to coach the school generally considered tops in Ohio High school football.

However, the Reds, who in previous games had faded in the final session, did just the opposite last night and scored four last period tallies, three within a minute and a half while Cleveland players were serving time in the penalty box.

In the National league, the Toronto Maple Leafs won their third straight playoff victory, 5-1, over the Boston Bruins. New York evaded its series with Detroit at two all by cowning the Red Wings in New York, 3-1. Both series will be resumed tomorrow night.

Will Try A. A. U. Meet

AKRON, March 31—Jack Taylor, 17, and Don Gross, 14, two Olympic hopefuls from the Akron Firestone swimming team, will compete in the National Senior A. A. U. championships at Yale university starting April 1.

Betts Wins Honor

EAST LIVERPOOL, March 31—Jack Betts, center on the East Liverpool High school basketball team and son of Principal Ralph W. Betts, today held the annual H. Y. Memorial trophy as the school's outstanding athlete of the current school year. The award was granted in memory of local athletes who died in World War II.
